Official TOEIC scores and an academic transcript at the undergraduate level are used to determine whether an applicant has the necessary academic competence regarding his or her prospective performance at the graduate school. A recommendation letter and an

- Entrance examination with academic achievement test

An oral examination to measure an applicant's academic level in his or her major, official TOEIC scores as a substitute for an English test and an academic transcript at the undergraduate level are used to judge whether an applicant has the necessary academic competence regarding his or her prospective performance at the graduate school. An interview is also conducted to determine an applicant's enthusiasm for research and his or her intellectual ability to solve academic problems. An admission decision will be made after comprehensive evaluation of their results.

Doctoral Program

An interview (oral examination) is conducted to gauge the broad spectrum of an applicant's academic and research skills, which are related to his or her prospective performance at the graduate school. An admission decision is made after comprehensively assessing the oral examination result with application documents.

About Education through Exceptional Measures on Educational Methods as Stipulated in Article 14 of the Standards for Establishment of Graduate Schools (Ordinance of the Ministry of Education No. 28 of 1974)

In recent years, graduate schools have been expected to nurture advanced technical experts, such as researchers and engineers who are already employed and who will be able to play a leading role in their field of activity. However, if education at graduate schools is conducted only in a conventional way, such researchers and engineers have to leave their jobs to study. This tends to limit their opportunities to receive education at graduate schools.

But as Article 14 of the Standards for Establishment of Graduate Schools stipulates, "In the curriculum at graduate schools, if special educational needs are recognized, graduate schools are entitled to carry out education in appropriate ways, such as conducting classes or giving research guidance at night, or at other specific times or periods." This enables graduate schools to take exceptional measures for the education of researchers and engineers who are already employed.

The University's graduate school thus provides researchers and engineers who are employed and who wish to take courses at our graduate school with education through exceptional measures on educational methods, as stipulated in Article 14 of the Standards for Establishment of Graduate Schools.

Payment Exemption System for Entrance and Tuition Fees, etc.

1 Payment Exemption System for Entrance and Tuition Fees

The University has its own system that exempts the payment of full or half of the entrance and tuition fees.

Even when the full amount has not been exempted, the school offers a scholarship program that covers the amount equivalent to the entrance and tuition fees borne by students.

Contact the section in charge for more details, as there are certain standards for using these systems.

2 Other systems

- a. Kitami Institute of Technology scholarship program for graduate school students
